

The background is a movie poster for 'Hugo' by Martin Scorsese. It features characters from the film, including a man in a tuxedo, a woman, and a man in a military-style uniform. The Eiffel Tower is visible in the background. The title 'HUGO' is written in large, golden, 3D letters. The text 'A MARTIN SCORSESE PICTURE' is written above the title. The bottom part of the poster shows a close-up of a large, intricate clock mechanism with a young boy climbing on it.
